In Kind Donations

From t-shirt printing to raffle prizes to web hosting, it takes a lot to make a conference happen. For supporters who donate goods and services in lieu of monetary donations, we provide sponsor benefits commensurate with the fair market monetary value of the in kind donation.

Hacker Bake Sale

Every summer, we run an online fundraiser we like to call our Hacker Bake Sale. Members of the community and Close Personal Friends of Lil' Chompy donate badges, books, artwork, and other hacker treasures which we auction off to help pay for the conference. One year we auctioned off a copy of the world's largest confirmed prime number autographed by the hacker who found it!

If you're interested in donating items for our Hacker Bake Sale, please reach out to sponsor@bsidesorlando.org
